Dear Susan:

Your letter to Insulfoam dated September 24, 2008 has been referred to the EPS Molders Association (EPSMA) for response.

You make inquiry regarding EPS industry testing and related member publications, specifically Insulfoam's Technical Bulletin 22 and an article of Frequently Asked Questions. Specifically you ask for laboratory and technical reports to substantiate claims regarding the characteristics of extruded and/or expanded polystyrene insulation.

At this time, EPSMA has determined to decline your request. Any further inquiry on this subject should be directed to EPSMA.

Sincerely,

EPS MOLDERS ASSOCIATION
